SUBARU OF AMERICA HELPS PETS IN NEED DURING 2020 PHILADELPHIA AUTO SHOW

Automaker Hosts Pet Adoption Events with Participating Local Animal Shelters

Camden, N.J., Feb 6, 2020 - Subaru of America, Inc. today announced that as part of its ongoing Subaru Loves Pets initiative, the automaker will host pet adoptions during the 2020 Philadelphia Auto Show. From February 7 – 17, attendees can stop by the Subaru exhibit inside the Pennsylvania Convention Center and see firsthand how initiatives like this further support the automaker's goal to unite pets with loving homes in the community.

"At Subaru of America, we consider the Philadelphia Auto Show our hometown event, so we're especially excited to help animals in our community find loving homes with our friends and neighbors in the Philadelphia area," said Alan Bethke, Senior Vice President, Marketing of Subaru of America, Inc. "Our partnership with these local shelters in our very own backyard reinforces our commitment to protecting and improving the lives of pets everywhere."

In order to facilitate the adoption event, Subaru has partnered with six shelters local to the Philadelphia area: 1 Love 4 Animals, Morris Animal Refuge, TLC Rescue PA, Philadelphia Animal Welfare Society, Delaware Valley Golden Retriever Rescue and Providence Animal Center. Shelter partners will alternate their presence daily throughout the eleven days. Auto show attendees will be able to interact with the adorable pets from the six partnering shelters during select times and dates, including the Black Tie Tailgate:
