Automaker Releases Creative Campaign to Launch the Signature Give-Back Event in Tandem with Employee Volunteer Activities Across the Country

Camden, N.J., Nov 18, 2021 - Subaru of America, Inc. today announced that to celebrate the launch of the 2021 Subaru Share the Love® Event, the automaker will debut a series of national advertising spots featuring the people, places and pets impacted by the philanthropy event over its 14-year-long run.

The advertising also showcases the hometown charities – selected by Subaru retailers – which benefit from the Subaru Share the Love Event, as well as the impact of the automaker’s work with Feeding America to help address food insecurity.

“Being more than a car company means stepping up for our communities, and the Subaru Share the Love Event is the culmination of a year spent striving to be a source of help, comfort and love for all those who interact with Subaru,” said Alan Bethke, Senior Vice President of Marketing, Subaru of America, Inc. “Together with our retailer partners and valued Subaru community, we proudly kick off this 14th annual Subaru Share the Love Event.
