SUBARU CELEBRATES URBAN FARMING AT THE 5th ANNUAL FALL FESTIVAL AT GREENSGROW FARMS IN PHILADELPHIA

- Greensgrow Farms, the nationally recognized leader in urban farming, to feature a farmer's market, crafts, and do-it-yourself demonstrations
- Subaru of America to feature a kid's corner, soundstage highlighting local musical talent and coat drive to benefit the Covenant House

Cherry Hill, N.J., Oct 4, 2012 - Subaru of America, Inc. will hold its 5th Annual Subaru Fall Festival at Greensgrow Farms on Saturday, October 6 in Philadelphia. The Subaru Fall Festival is a celebration of fresh food, local vendors, crafts and farm fun. The festival is held annually at the nationally recognized Greensgrow Farms -- a former galvanized steel plant that has become a model for urban agriculture. Attendees can sample harvest dishes, enjoy crafts stations, and visit the Greensgrow farmer's market; children can partake in various activities at the Subaru Kid's Corner.

Highlights for this year's festival include:

- Chili cook-off competition
- Philly's favorite pig- Milkshake's, first birthday party
- Live music throughout the day
- Subaru Kid's Corner with organic snack station and pumpkin painting
- Philadelphia PAWS mobile pet adoption unit onsite

Attendees will also have the opportunity to check out the 2013 Subaru Outback and the 2013 Impreza -- the most fuel efficient all wheel drive car in America.

"Greensgrow is thrilled to be partnering with Subaru as a thank you to our community for supporting our mutual vision of a better, greener Philadelphia," added Mary Seton Corboy, chief farm hand and idea officer, Greensgrow Farms. "Like Subaru, we believe in sharing the love."

"We look forward to holding our annual Fall Festival at Greensgrow Farms every year," notes Tim Tagye, promotions and sponsorship manager, Subaru of America, Inc. "The festival highlights Greensgrow's efforts towards giving back to local communities which resonates well with our owners and employees."
